

If you stop and think about it, we have a lot of unexplained illnesses around us, some more so than others. That leads me to some questions:

- If the liver completely regenerates itself after 6 weeks, how is liver cancer possible?
- Why did someone who came into the clinic last week say that they were presenting symptoms of a thyroid issue, but no doctor could find anything wrong with her?
- Why did I have substantial knee pain and have to give up playing sports for a number of years, but no one (doctor, physiotherapist, and athletic trainer) could find any reason for the pain?

Western medicine of course, generally treats the symptoms, but when the symptoms have no basis upon which to even make a treatment, what do you do?

The next question that comes to my mind is what is the root cause behind the increase in illnesses and dis-ease that we are seeing all around us today?

Perhaps it's time to stop looking around at our environment to find innumerable reasons and excuses for everything that is wrong with us. It's time to know that there is a lot within us that we can acknowledge and release, such as anger, hate, abandonment, guilt, grief etc. This is what I was led to do and I have found and overcome many of my own memories and emotions and dis-eases. In addition, my personal evolution unexpectedly led me to become a Reconnection Practitioner. Through finding Reconnective Healing™, I have found the answers to many of my previous questions and it is my passion to share this with others. I have learned that we are not meant to live with such pain and dis-ease, and that a different life is possible.

Reconnective Healing brings light, information and energy to you through a new frequency or vibration. Its impact is felt on the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual levels thereby working on the root cause of the imbalance or dis-ease that exists in you. Through this light, information, and energy you can:

- be healed of pain, dis-ease, and medical conditions, such as trauma, cancers, fibromyalgia, arthritis and other chronic conditions
- be energized and rejuvenated
- have your personal evolution optimized

Although no one knows for sure how the healing works, it is believed that it happens at a quantum, multi-dimensional level, affecting your atoms, cells and DNA so that blockages, memories, and emotions can be released allowing the body to heal and do what it needs to do at the root cause.

If you would like to try something different, feel a new energy, and have your personal evolution accelerated, please reconnect with Robbin Zrudlo. He can be found at Vitallife Integrative Medicine in Westboro, at www.vitalmed.ca, at www.healandevolve.ca or at healandevolve@gmail.com.